

Becoming self-employed and registering for National Insurance contributions and/or tax

You must tell us when you start working for yourself – that is when you become self-employed.

The easiest way is to call the Self-Employed Registration Helpline on

08459 15 45 15

Check this form first for the details you must give to the operator.

You can also

- fill in this form and post it to

National Insurance Contributions Office
Central Agent Authorisation Team
Longbenton
Newcastle upon Tyne
NE98 1ZZ, or

- take it to any Inland Revenue office.

Please tick the box if you would like us to send you a copy of 'Starting up in business' guide after you have registered.  Or you can find it on the website at www.inlandrevenue.gov.uk/startingup

If you are going to do all your work for one person or firm, you may be an employee. Our leaflet IR56 Employed or self-employed, will tell you more about this. You can get a copy from

- any Inland Revenue office, or
- the Self Assessment Orderline on 0845 9000 404.

If you delay telling us you are self-employed for three months or more you may have to pay a penalty of £100. If you know you are registering late, please tell us the reason for the delay on a separate piece of paper.

How to pay your Class 2 NICs

For tax year 2005-06 self-employed National Insurance contributions are £2.10 per week.

To arrange payment of your National Insurance contributions just fill in the Direct Debit mandate attached.

If you are unable to pay by Direct Debit we will arrange to send you a bill every 13 weeks. These will be issued in January, April, July and October.

If you expect your income from the business to be below £4,345 for the tax year 6 April 2005 to 5 April 2006 you may not have to pay National Insurance contributions. If you would like more information on the Small Earnings Exception (SEE) tick this box.

Employing someone else

If you are thinking of taking someone on, or already employ someone else, please phone the New Employer's Helpline on 0845 607 0143. Or tick the box and we will send you more information.

VAT

Please read the note about VAT in the attached leaflet. If you would like a VAT registration application form tick this box.
